

An Autumn Run in the Chuckanut
A Mad Libs inspired Game

We set out at _____ and headed for the _____ trails in the Chuckanut Mountains.
(TIME OF DAY) (ADJECTIVE)

When we arrived, we laced up our _____ and stretched our _____.
(KIND OF SHOES) (BODY PART)

We realized we forgot our _____, but _____ said it was too late to turn back.
(PLURAL NOUN) (RUNNING PARTNER)

The fall leaves were just beginning to _____ from the _____ and made a _____ sound underfoot. It was the perfect day for a _____ autumn run!
(VERB) (PLURAL NOUN) (ADJECTIVE)

(ADJECTIVE)

So, we started _____ and came upon a/an _____.
(VERB ENDING IN -ING) (ANIMAL)

It was the last thing we expected and _____ exclaimed “_____.” We (same running partner) (exclamation)

were so _____! _____ said that we (emotion) (same running partner)

needed to stand very _____ and make the _____ feel _____.
(ADJECTIVE) (SAME ANIMAL) (ADJECTIVE)

The _____ _____ and we were able to _____ safely away.
(SAME ANIMAL) (PAST TENSE VERB) (VERB)

The rest of the day, we _____ around the _____ trails and ate _____.
(PAST TENSE VERB) (ADJECTIVE) (FAVORITE NUTRITION)

Overall, it was a _____ day to go for a/an _____ in Bellingham’s _____ trail
(ADJECTIVE) (ACTIVITY) (ADJECTIVE)

system!